Blessed Carlo Acutis Pray for Us

WHO IS CARLO ACUTIS? WHO IS ANTONIA SALZANO?

Carlo Acutis, a Catholic Italian teenager who died in 2006, was beatified Oct. 10, 2020 in Assisi. He died within a week of being diagnosed with acute promyelocytic leukemia. Acutis, a gamer and computer programmer who loved soccer and the Eucharist. He built a website cataloguing and promoting Eucharistic miracles. His cause for canonization began in 2013. He was designated “Venerable” in 2018, and was designated “Blessed” October 10, 2020. There have been many miracles attributed to his intercession.

His mother, Antonia Salzano will share a insightful and poignant reflection about her son: his devotions, his convictions, his childhood and so on. She'll also talk to moms about how her son impacted not only her, but millions of others. She'll talk about the miracles that have been reported and more.

We encourage you to visit his website at www.carloacutis.com

HIS EMINENCE THOMAS CARDINAL COLLINS | Some Reflections by Cardinal Collins

Born and raised in Guelph, Ontario, Thomas Collins was ordained a priest in 1973. He considered other paths, but was inspired by a high school English teacher who suggested he should consider the priesthood.

He earned undergraduate and master's degrees in English, later pursuing theological training in Rome. Specializing in the Book of Revelation, he earned his licentiate in sacred scripture from the Pontifical Biblical Institute and a doctorate in theology from the Gregorian University.

He was named Bishop of St. Paul, Alberta in 1997 and Archbishop of Edmonton in 1999. Pope Benedict XVI appointed Archbishop Collins as Archbishop of Toronto in December 2006. On February 18, 2012, he was elevated to the College of Cardinals in Rome. Cardinal Collins was one of 115 cardinal-electors to participate in the 2013 Conclave in Rome, where Pope Francis was elected to succeed Pope Benedict XVI.

DONNA-MARIE COOPER-O'BOYLE | Divine Mercy in a Woman's Life

Today's Catholic women absolutely need God's Divine Mercy. Saint Faustina can help us. The young mystic penned in her Diary, "I clearly feel that my mission does not end with death, but begins." And it truly did! Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska was not born with a shining halo hovering over her head and a peaches and cream easy life. Neither is she some austere person from ages past. We certainly don't need to dust off history pages to meet this modern day saint who was very much aware of the modern world. Saint Faustina has much to teach us today! She was chosen to receive apparitions from Jesus and was entrusted by God with the mammoth task of propagating the devotion to Divine Mercy. She suffered much to carry out her mission and certainly earned her halo! As the young nun grew in holiness, she possessed many mystical gifts.

Saint Faustina was canonized by St. John Paul II who said, "Where, if not in the Divine Mercy, can the world find refuge and the light of hope?" Author Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle who knows all about the bombardment that women face from a lopsided and darkened culture believes, "Saint Faustina is our dear sister in Christ and can greatly help us to navigate our own journey towards Heaven!"

Author and Divine Mercy specialist Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle's authoritative presentation will impart essential lessons to Catholic women about the spiritual life from Jesus Himself who had given private retreats to His Secretary of Divine Mercy. Among other fascinating facts, you'll learn what type of prayer that Jesus likes the most and which is extremely beneficial to your soul, as well as which prayer is always answered by God. In addition, Donna-Marie addresses a variety of the needs of women in various stages of life, and also includes captivating anecdotes and true stories that are sure to stir your heart.

Contributor and General Editor of the Divine Mercy Catholic Bible, Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle is a Catholic wife, mother and grandmother..She is a retreat and pilgrimage leader, an award-winning best-selling author of more than thirty-five books. She has also won awards as a journalist. She has spoken internationally. You will recognize Donna-Marie as the host and creator of several EWTN television series: Everyday Blessings for Catholic Moms, Catholic Mom's Café, and Feeding Your Family's Soul. Donna-Marie personally knew St. Teresa of Calcutta for a decade, received a special blessing on her writing on Mother Teresa from St. John Paul II, and was invited by the Holy See to participate at a Vatican Congress. She has appeared on many programs including Fox News, Zenit News, EWTN News Nightly, Vatican Insider, Rome Reports, and Vatican Radio. ANNA NUZZO | Consecration to St. Joseph

Our event is being hosted on the Solemnity of St. Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Have you wondered why? Do you know what it means to consecrate one self to St. Joseph? Anna Nuzzo wrote a consecration to St. Joseph song. This thought provoking presentation will bring you closer to St. Joseph inspiring you beyond belief.

Anna Nuzzo is an Int'l Catholic Singer, Songwriter and Recording Artist known for her beautiful prayer songs. She credits her Marian Consecration in 2012 for jumpstarting her worldwide Music Ministry. She has been blessed to sing in the Holy Land, Italy, Poland, Canada, Trinidad, Carnegie Hall and across the US. One of her favorite moments was singing in the Vatican, St. Peter's Basilica, for the 2019 Epiphany Vigil Mass. Music from her 6 Dds is available on all streaming platforms. See annanuzzo.com for more info.

ROSSANA DI ZIO MAGNOTTA | Love, Loss and Faith

Rossana will share her her journey of tremendous love, never ending obstacles and challenges and heartbreaking losses. Through it all, my faith, prayer and trust in God have carried me through some of the darkest moments of my life.

Rossana Di Zio Magnotta is CEO of Magnotta Winery, an Ontario family winery and grape grower and one of Canada's leading wine producers for over 30 years. As the leader of the third largest winery in Ontario, she has created over 180 different products and helped evolve Canada into the world-class wine producer it is today by bringing Ontario's distinctive wines to centre stage in international wine competitions. A successful entrepreneur, Rossana's real passion is giving back and believes nothing is more important than fighting for people who can't fight for themselves.

In 2012, she formed the G. Magnotta Foundation for Vector-Borne Diseases, named in honour of her husband's courageous fight with Lyme Disease, with a mission to establish Canada's first research facility dedicated to Lyme Disease. In June 2017, her dream became a reality when the Foundation announced a landmark partnership with the University of Guelph to open the G. Magnotta Lyme Disease Research Lab. Soon afterwards, she launched Venture Series, Canada's largest collection of philanthropic wines. A portion of the proceeds from every Venture bottle sold goes to support the lab's ground breaking work that will change how Lyme Disease is tested and treated in Canada.

Rossana is also a devout catholic. Along with her family, she has been a member and supporter of a local parish for over 35 years. She has experienced tremendous love in her lifetime, while enduring never ending obstacles and challenges and, ultimately, suffering heartbreaking losses. Through it all, Rossana has lived her faith, trusted in God and prayed for his guidance to show her the way.
